CALENDAR OF EVENTS

FEBRUARY MEETING - FEB 4

Vero Beach Museum
in the Leonhardt Auditorium
Social - 6:30
Meeting - 7:00

Our speak will be George Bollis. He will discuss and illustrate ways to help you create better, more meaningful photos through observation and appreciation of the less obvious. George feels that Ansel Adams perhaps said it best: "I hope that my work will encourage self expression in others and stimulate the search for beauty and creative excitement in the great world around us."

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

2010 might be the year we put the global warming debate to rest. As I write this message, there's a man working on our hearing system. It is currently 54 degrees in my home. Brrrrr.

You know how people are always saying to live for today? The old eat, drink and be merry adage.... well, on January 3rd, that message was hammered home to me when I unexpectedly lost my niece, Jennifer Anne Green at the tender age of 33. Yes, it was sad, and we're pretty upset by the circumstances, but there is still a lesson to be learned and here it is, as I see it:

It's nice that we all come to the Art Club meetings, but don't just come and then go home. Let's get to know our fellow members, get out of the house and l-i-v-e! Phone an old friend. Send some emails. Invite the neighbor next door over for tea but share your life while you can.

With Under the Oaks just ahead, there's a perfect opportunity to get to know new people, to get out in the community and have some fun. Don't let this chance slip by. Get involved. Share your life.

God Bless,

xoxo Sue Dinunno

BRAGGING BRACKET

Phil Steel recently completed a long odyssey around the Chesapeake Bay with a performance art production. He did the project with playwright and author, Roger Vaughn. There were 10 performance locations, 8 museums and 2 colleges. They also published a book titled, Fishing Gone to emphasize the plight of pollution and over fishing, depleting the economy of the island.

WORKSHOPS

Lian Zhen Workshop Yes, there is going to be another Zhen workshop!! The workshop at the beginning of the month was very successful and everyone hated to see it end so Lian has agreed to return for 2 days March 8 - 9th to teach us his technique for painting elephants. It will again be at the Woman's Club. The time will be 9 - 4:00 pm with lunch from 12 - 1:00 pm. The cost will be $150. Please contact Joan Delozier to sign up.

Are you interested in teaching a workshop in Italy or know someone who is? Check out this beautiful Italian Villa as a possible location. All details, photos and contact information can be found on the blog below: <http://www.borgofarnese.blogspot.com>

ART IN THE PARK

by Mary Bing

Art in the Park, a series of one-day outdoor art shows presented by members of the Vero Beach Art Club will soon return to its home along the newly renovated promenade at Humiston Park on Ocean Drive. We will set up our tents there for our January 31 show, and eagerly anticipate the City of Vero Beach's grand opening of Humiston Park in February or March. More good news. Lionel and Scott have measured the promenade for tent spaces and have determined that the sidewalk really is big enough for us to set up our tents. We'll be sending out space assignments soon, and I'll be able to fill substitute assignments as soon as we get a final space count, so keep watching for emails from us.

January 3rd show in the cold.
Future shows on Jan 31, Feb 14, Feb 28, Mar 28, and Apr 11. Plan to come and bring a pal
